

Presidential Matters Excerpt

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

The following questions offer a chance to learn utterly useless information about former U.S. Presidents. I hope you find this quiz amusing, but you should feel zero guilt if you don't know these answers!

(Pictured: James Buchanan)

Two-thirds of our Presidents were lawyers and another dozen were soldiers, but others also had unusual careers at some point.

Trivia quiz:

Presidential Tidbits

Can you match the President to his former occupation?

1. James Buchanan ____
2. Gerald Ford (pic) ____
3. James Garfield ____
4. Ulysses S. Grant ____
 - a. Model
 - b. Prizefighter
 - c. Professor of Latin, Greek and philosophy
 - d. Tanner

Trivia quiz:

Presidential Tidbits

Can you match the President to his former occupation?

1. James Buchanan b
2. Gerald Ford (pic) a
3. James Garfield c
4. Ulysses S. Grant d

a. Model

b. Prizefighter

c. Professor of Latin, Greek and philosophy

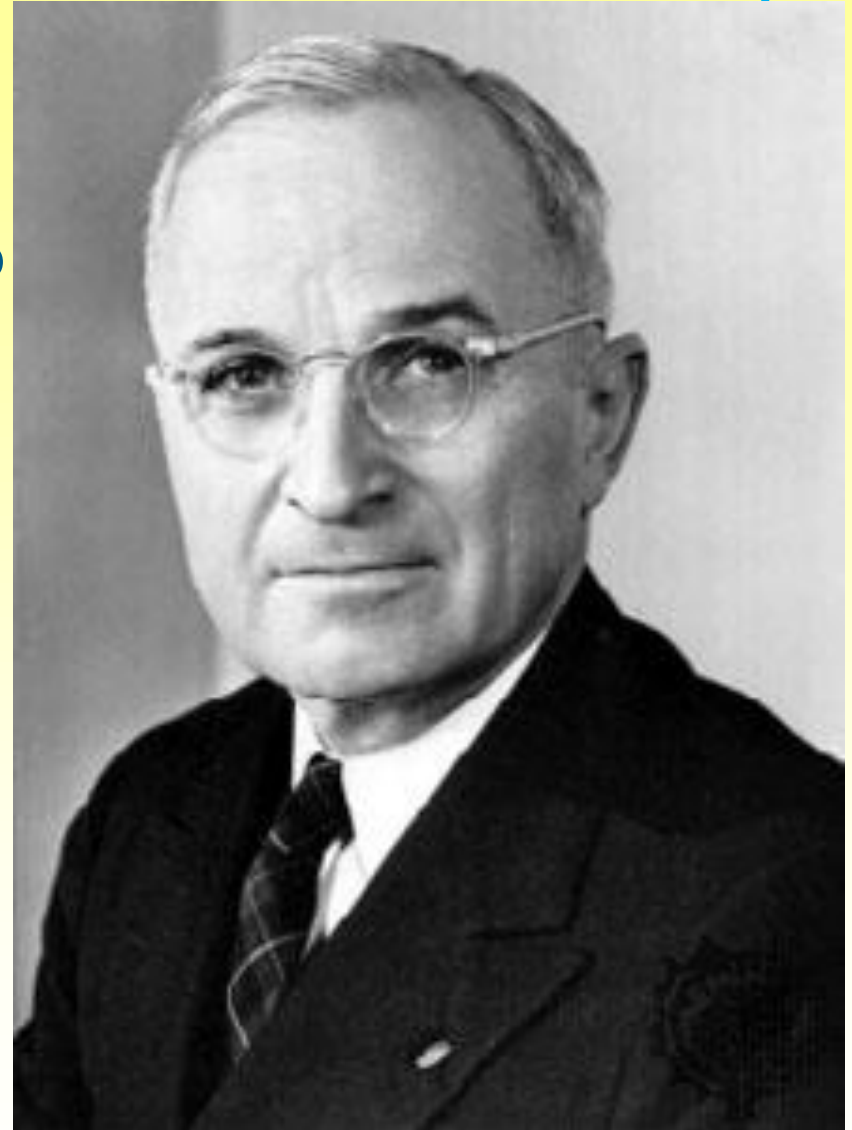

d. Tanner

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Can you match the President to his former occupation?

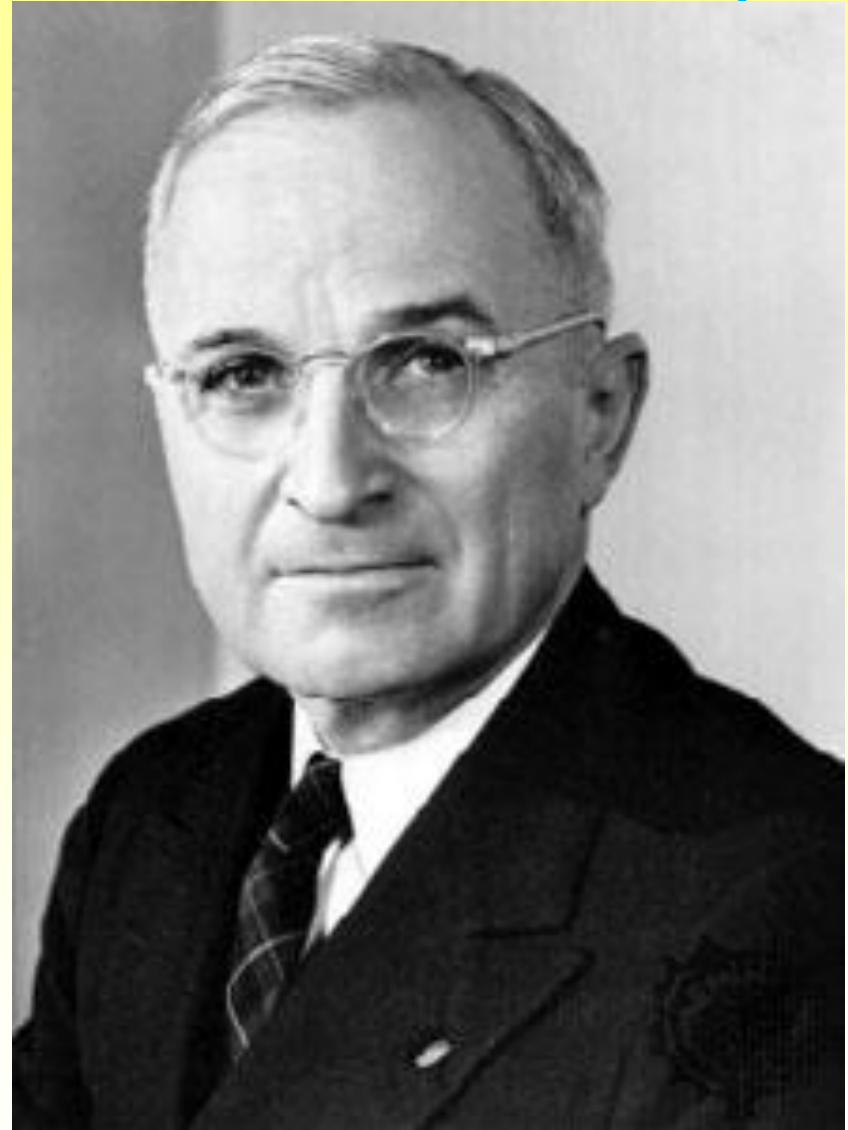

1. Warren Harding ____
2. Herbert Hoover ____
3. Andrew Johnson ____
4. Harry Truman (pic) ____
 - a. Engineer
 - b. Men's clothing salesman
 - c. Newspaper publisher
 - d. Tailor

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Can you match the President to his former occupation?

1. Warren Harding c
 2. Herbert Hoover a
 3. Andrew Johnson d
 4. Harry Truman (pic) b
- a. Engineer
 - b. Men's clothing salesman
 - c. Newspaper publisher
 - d. Tailor

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

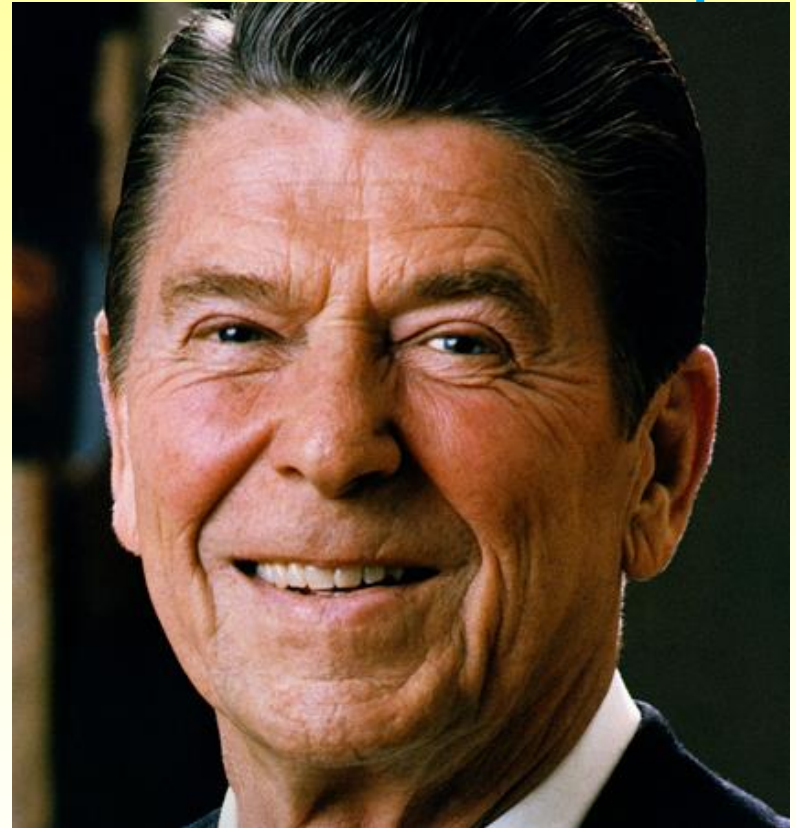

In spite of all our lawyer Presidents, some clearly did not go to college planning to end up in politics. Jimmy Carter, for example, studied nuclear physics. Herbert Hoover (pictured) studied geology and worked as a mining engineer in both Australia and China.

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Who says being President ages you? Not counting Jimmy Carter who at the time of this writing is 95 and takes the prize for living longest, five of our former presidents lived to be 90 or older. Which of the following was not one of them?

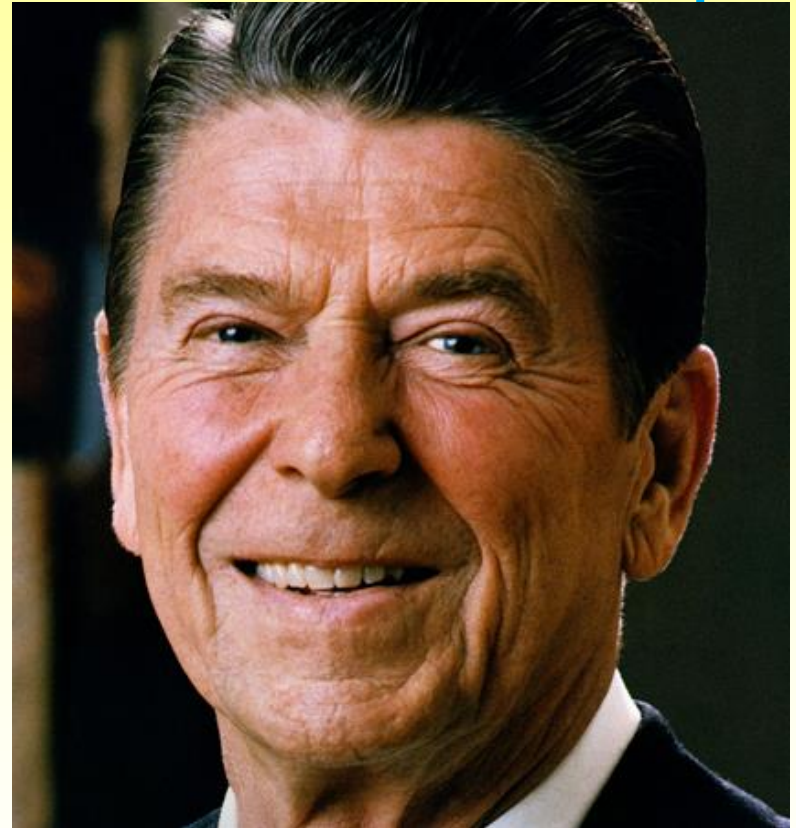

- a. John Adams ____
- b. Calvin Coolidge ____
- c. Herbert Hoover ____
- d. Ronald Reagan (pictured)

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Who says being President ages you? Not counting Jimmy Carter who at the time of this writing is 95 and takes the prize for living longest, five of our former presidents lived to be 90 or older. Which of the following was not one of them?

- a. John Adams ____
- b. Calvin Coolidge X
- c. Herbert Hoover ____
- d. Ronald Reagan ____

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

In order of the oldest at time of death, still not counting Jimmy Carter who has surpassed them all, the other five, and their age at death were:

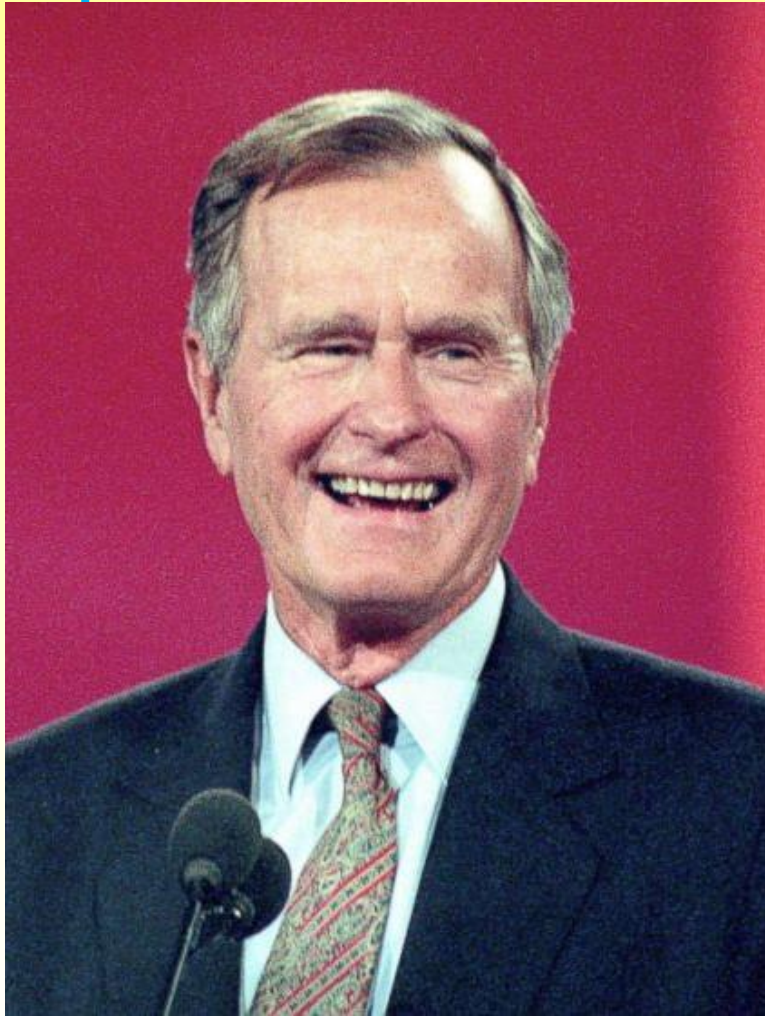

George H.W. Bush (pic) – 94

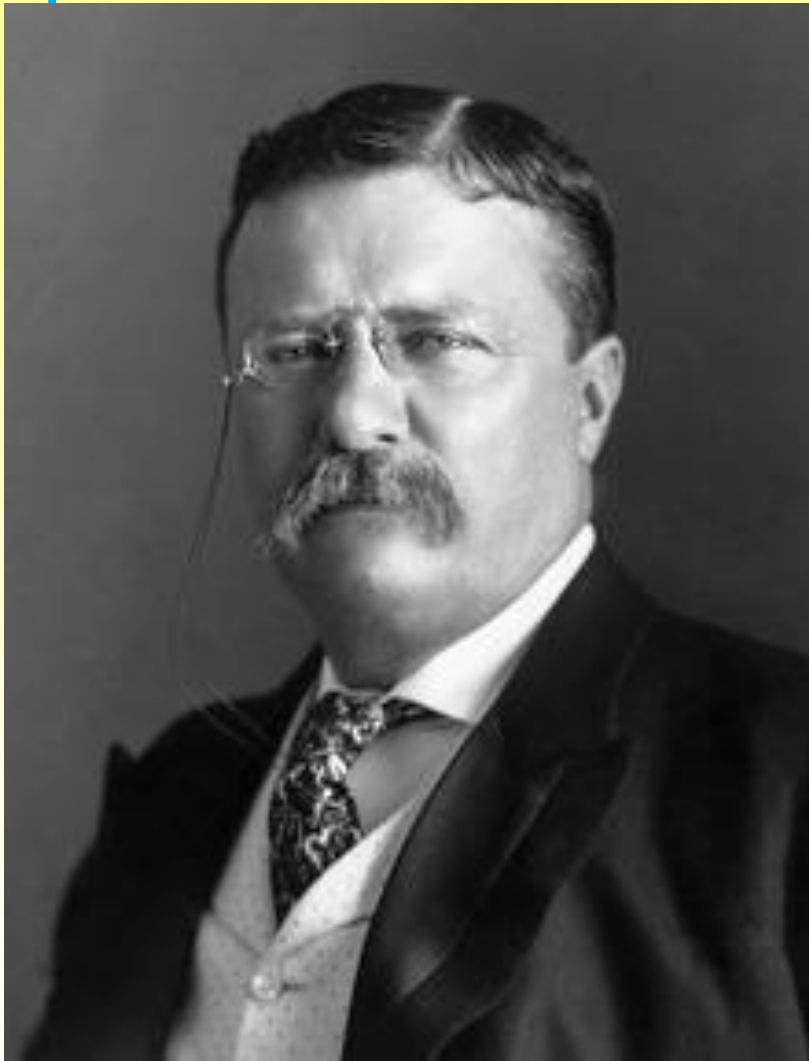

Gerald Ford – 93

Ronald Reagan – 93

John Adams – 90

Herbert Hoover – 90

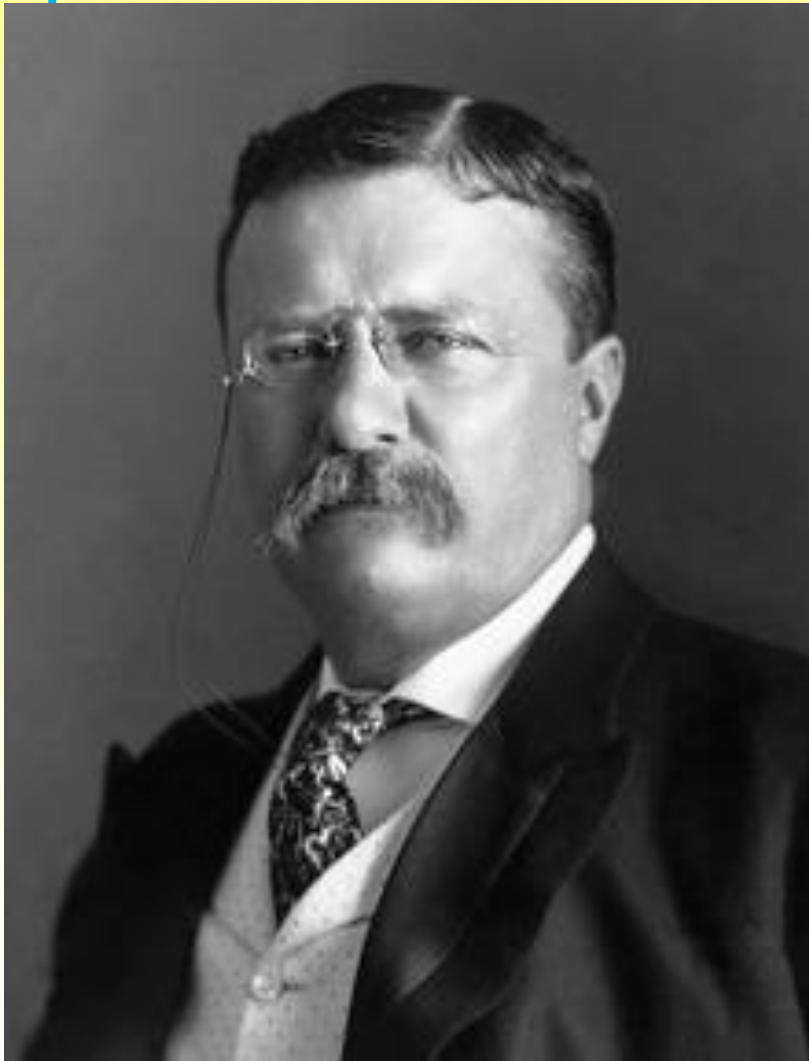

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

If you want to be a U.S. President, history has shown that the best month to be born is ____.

- a. February
- b. May
- c. July
- d. October

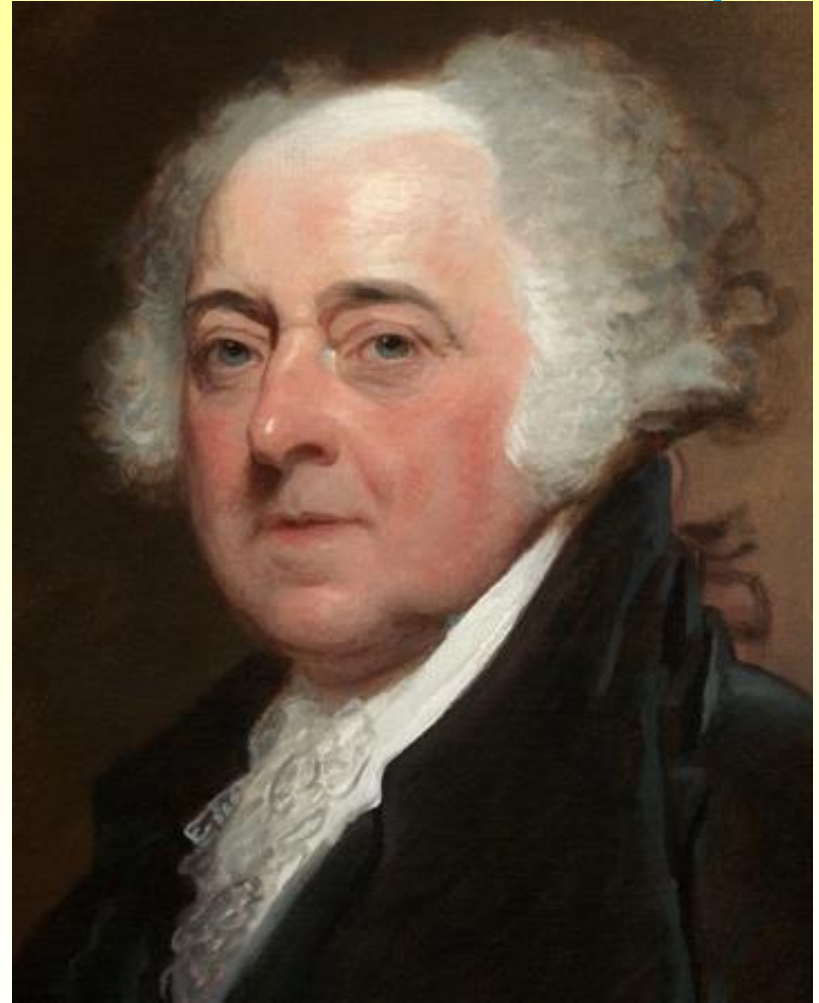

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

If you want to be a U.S. President, history has shown that the best month to be born is d.

- a. February
- b. May
- c. July
- d. October

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Early Presidents were born predominately in fall and winter. Those born in October were Theodore Roosevelt (previous slide), John Adams (pictured here), Chester Arthur, Jimmy Carter, Dwight Eisenhower, and Rutherford B. Hayes. Five were born in November, and five in August. In fact, most recent Presidents have had summer birthdays.

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Since people began taking notice of such things, seven of our presidents have been left-handed, including four of the last seven (through the 2016 election). Who was not one of them?

George H.W. Bush ____

George W. Bush ____

Bill Clinton (pic) ____

Gerald Ford ____

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Since people began taking notice of such things, seven of our presidents have been left-handed, including four of the last seven (through the 2016 election). Who was not one of them?

George H.W. Bush _____

George W. Bush X

Bill Clinton (pic) _____

Gerald Ford _____

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Ronald Reagan was considered ambidextrous. In addition to the other three mentioned on the previous slide, Herbert Hoover, Harry Truman, and Barack Obama are/were also left-handed. Before the 1920s, being left-handed was considered a disability, so we don't have a record of everyone. Statistically, about 1 in 10 are left-handers, (Pictured: George H.W. Bush)

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Almost all the presidential households have included dogs and/or cats, and years ago cows, goats, horses, and donkeys were not unusual. However, it's striking that three Presidents had pet parrots. Who was not one of them?

Andrew Jackson ____

James Madison ____

William McKinley ____

Howard Taft ____

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Almost all the presidential households have included dogs and/or cats, and years ago cows, goats, horses, and donkeys were not unusual. However, it's striking that three Presidents had pet parrots. Who was not one of them?

Andrew Jackson ____

James Madison ____

William McKinley ____

Howard Taft X

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Can you match the President to his unusual pet?

John Quincy Adams ____

Calvin Coolidge ____

Herbert Hoover ____

Thomas Jefferson ____

Theodore Roosevelt ____

a. alligators

b. badger named Josiah

c. bear cubs

d. Raccoon named Rebecca

e. silkworms

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Can you match the President to his unusual pet?

John Quincy Adams e

Calvin Coolidge d

Herbert Hoover a

Thomas Jefferson c

Theodore Roosevelt b

a. alligators

b. badger named Josiah

c. bear cubs

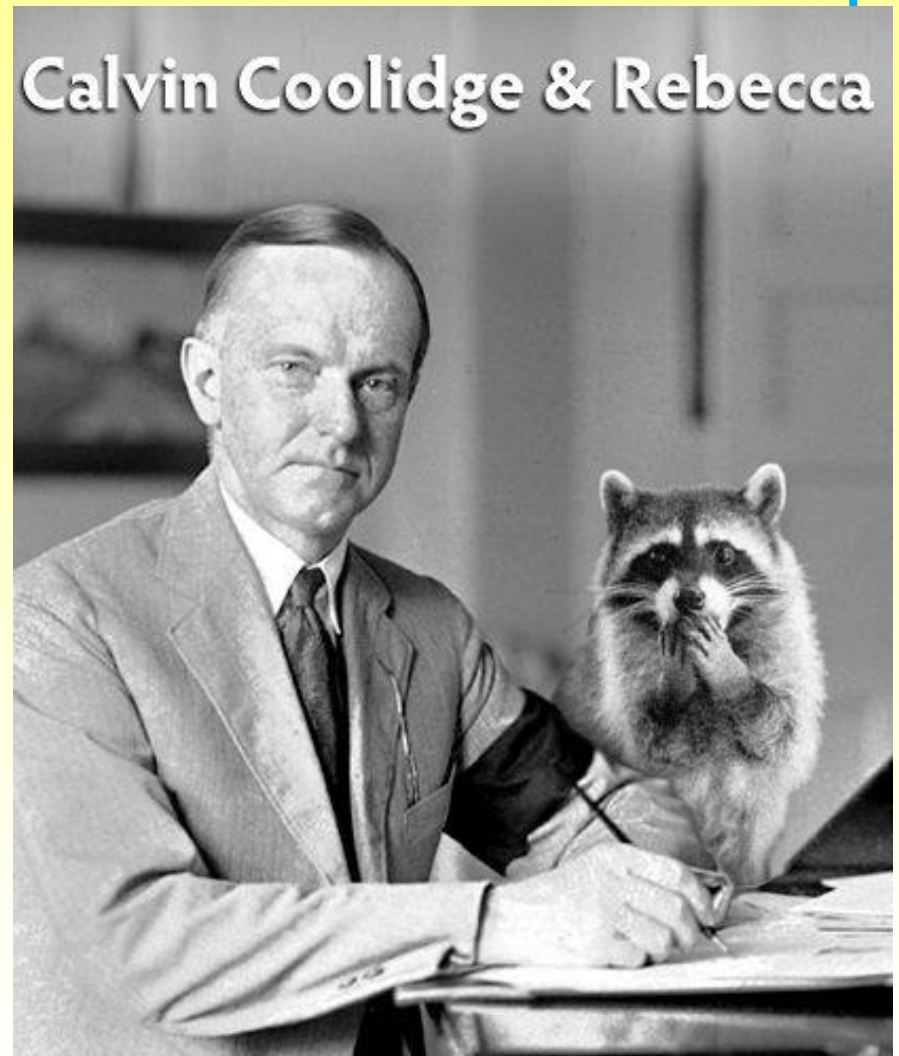

d. Raccoon named Rebecca

e. silkworms

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Unusual as it may seem today, Calvin Coolidge was very fond of Rebecca the Raccoon, who was often seen riding on his shoulder. Jefferson's bear cubs were a gift from Lewis and Clark.

Two super pet-loving Presidents

Two Presidents had a LOT of animals on White House grounds. (Some later went to zoos.)

- Calvin Coolidge (1923-1929): had 12 dogs, 2 cats, 5 birds, a donkey, 2 raccoons, a bobcat, a black bear, a wallaby, 2 lion cubs, and a pygmy hippo.
- Theodore Roosevelt (1901-1909) had many dogs, cats, birds, guinea pigs, pet snakes, horses and other farm animals that were his children's pets, + a zebra, hyena, lion, wildcat, and 5 bears.

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Many U.S. Presidents have had unusual first names – Millard, Rutherford, Ulysses, Dwight, Lyndon – but six have shared the same first name. Which one is it?

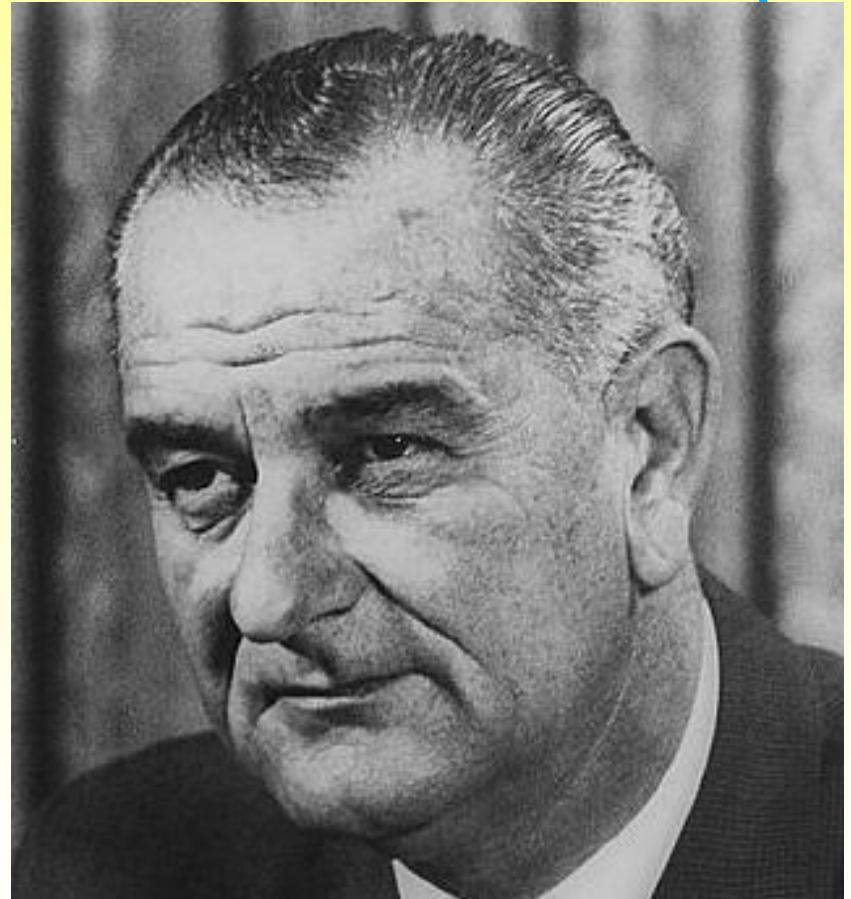

- a. George ____
- b. James ____
- c. John ____
- d. William ____

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

Many U.S. Presidents have had unusual first names – Millard, Rutherford, Ulysses, Dwight, Lyndon – but six have shared the same first name. Which one is it? (pictured: Lyndon Johnson)

- a. George ____
- b. James X
- c. John ____
- d. William ____

Trivia quiz: Presidential Tidbits

There have been six Presidents named James, counting Jimmy (James Earl) Carter. The others were Buchanan, Garfield (pictured), Madison, Monroe, and Polk. John and William are each the first name of four Presidents. And the Georges were Washington and two named Bush.

Did you know?

Here is what Norman Rockwell said about painting Dwight Eisenhower:

Eisenhower had about the most expressive face I ever painted, I guess. Just like an actor's. Very mobile. When he talked, he used all the facial muscles. And he had a great, wide mouth that I liked. When he smiled, it was just like the sun came out.

I hope this slide show excerpt has helped you make new connections in your brain and delightful connections sharing it with others.

For more information or more slide shows, contact Kathy Laenhue at Kathy@WiserNow.com

And please review www.WiserNow.com and www.CreatingDelight.com.

